New Sub-Division To be Developed

The matter of more residental building lots was discussed at some length at a recent meeting of Town Council and as an alternative to development in the south-east corner of Town, Council entered an agreement with J. R. MacKenzie for the purchase of additional land on the northern edge of town.

Council will purchase seven acres from Mr. MacKenzie and tentative plans for the new subdivision have been drawn up.

Bylaw No. 410 authorizing the purchase of the land north 48th Street was given two readings.

The proposed sub-division has been submitted to the Provincial Planning Board and surveying will go ahead im-mediately.

Unusual Moose Antler Found Near Lodgepole

An unusual find by Fred Androschuck recently was a moose antler embedded in the trunk of a large poplar tree near Pan American's "D" Lease at Lodgepole.

It appears that in shedding its antier the moose hung one horn on the branch of a small tree. As the tree grew the shank of the antier became completely embedded in the trunk.

By counting rings of the tree trunk it appears to be about 50 to 60 years old and would indicate that the antler has been in the tree for the past 35 to 45 years. When found by Mr. Androschuck the antler was about 12 feet from the ground.

Ironically, the antler was in perfect shape when found by Mr. Androschuck, but when he returned two weeks later to cut it out of the tree he found that a bear had got there ahead of him and climbed the tree and chewed up a portion of the antler.

The stub of the tree containing the antler has been acquired from Mr. Androschuck by Dean Meraw and is presently located in the office of Meraw & McGee in Drayton Valley.

Mr. Meraw plans to coat the trunk and antier to preserve it permanently.

Thirty or forty years of undisturbed growth embedded this moose antler firmly in the trunk of a poplar tree found near Pan American's "D" Lease at Lodgepole.

Missionary Describes South Korean Li

Rev. Romona Underwood spoke to the Drayton Valley United Church Woman on June 13th about her work with the Presbyterian Church in the Republic of Korea, the church with which the United Church of Canada co-operates in South Korea.

She stated that South Korea was almost next-door to Drayton Valley for it was only 12 hours away by jet. The smallness of the country was emphasized when she stated that from Edmonton to Calgary and Calgary to the Saskatchewan border would more than include the land area, of which less than one third was arable. Yet within that land lived thirty million people, 50% more than in all of Canada.

Slides were shown showing the homes of the aristocracy, the middle class, and the poor, A rural school was seen where over 100 children would be jammed together in a class-room approximately 20' x 30'

When questioned about education, she informed her attentive audience that for mid-dle school (grades 7, 8, and 9) and for high school (grades 10 to 12) registration enrollment fees were high being approximately $50 in addition to a monthly fee.
The need for library facilities especially in the rural areas was referred to.

The rural ministers earned a minimum salary (which often turned out to be the maximum) of $40,00 a month with the cost of rice being $16.00 a month for a family of four and in addition to this all the other expenses of a family had to be met.

Daily dawn break prayer meetings are held in addition to the Wednesday night and two services on Sunday. Then on Friday nights many Christians met in their homes for prayer. The depth of poverty and the fact that the cold-war tension between North and South Korea made life very precarious caused all to turn to God in prayer for strength and guidance.

In closing she referred to the fact that the hope of every land was in its young people-young people who were restless and critical not only of their own government and church, but in Korea of the actions of so-called Christians in the Western world. Her display illustrated a highly cultured people though the move from rural to industrialized society was just in its initial stages. The year 1968 in Canada is the year 4, 301 in Korea.

Dress Rehearsal

A drowning person in panic is his own worst enemy. Over-whelmed by fear, he gasps for air and gulps water instead. He expends energy at a terrific rate until he's too weak to struggle and finally loses consciousness. Chances for revival diminish rapidly. As the minutes tick away the heart and brain stop function-ing.

To help swimmers and nonswimmers combat panic in a drowning situation, Red Cross has developed a new water safsafety course. It's called Survival Swimming.

Most of the tests require the candidate to wear light clothing instead of a bathing suit. In more ways than one, it's like a dress rehearsal for drowning.

One test requires a Forward Roll Entry into the water. This simulates the way most people enter the water and drown either by falling off a dock or out of a capsizing boat. Confusion results. Underwater it is difficult to establish which way is up. Learning how to orient oneself quickly helps overcome panic.

Survival Swimming can be taken entirely on its own or as part of the regular Red Cross swimming program after Junior level. Courses are conducted under the guidance of a Red Cross trained instructor and are available in most communities this summer.

June 23 to 29 is Red Cross Water Safety Week. This summer we join with Red Cross and urge you to be careful in, on or near the water.

Day of Decision

In less than a week hopefuls in the Rocky Mountain Constituency will have learned the wishes of the people ... we hope it is the selection of a heavy poll who represents us in Ottawa for the next session.

Forecasting is out of our line of endeavour but with the field of six we can anticipate a surprise or two.

Whatever the result, the winner will have his hands full trying to adequately represent constituents in a huge riding that stretches from the U.S. border to north of Whitecourt. We think it's an almost impossible task and suggest that the winner begin quietly plugging for the next session of redistribution.

Wind-up Supper Held By Hospital Auxiliary

The Hospital Auxiliary wound up the year's events with a supper at the Cardium

Room on Thursday, June 13th. After supper Mrs. Katyal gave a most interesting personal account of life in India and showed some of her slides. Members were delighted to be shown how to wear a Sari and were able to see some lovely examples of Indian art in jewellery and ivory work.

The evening ended with the final business meeting and the draw for the lace table cloth made by Mrs. Hutton. Mrs. Katyal drew the lucky ticket and Mrs. E.S. Armstrong of Drayton Valley was the fortunate winner.

Spoons for perfect attendance were presented to Peggy McKillop, Florence Romano, and Ruth Greger. The spoon which is presented yearly to the baby born on or nearest Florence Nightingale Day went this year to the baby of Mrs. Sharon Heyland.

1838 Recipe for Election Cake

The following recipe for Election Cake comes from a cook book called "Receipts for Pastry, Cakes and Sweet-meats" by Miss Leslie. This book was published in 1838 and is a prize possession of Mrs. Bill Sware.

Three pounds and a half of sifted flour,

Five gills of strong fresh yeast, Two large table-spoonfuls of molasses

A gill of warm water Two pounds of fresh butter Two pounds of powdered sugar A table-spoonful of powdered cinnamon

A tea-spoonful of powdered mace Two powdered nutmegs Half a pint of rich milk Fourteen eggs.

Sift into a pan one pound of flour; and mix, in a second pan, the yeast, molasses, and the water which must be warm but not too hot. Then stir in, gradually, the pound of flour: cover it, and set it to rise; it should be light in three hours. This is setting a sponge, as the bakers call it. a half additional of sifted flour. Stir the butter and sugar together till quite light; and gradually the spice and the milk, and beat fourteen eggs till very smooth and thick. Then stir them gradually into the mixture, alternately with the flour. Lastly, (it is perf-ectly light) mix in the sponge. Then put it immediately into the buttered tin pans, and bake it in a moderate oven. It should be eaten fresh, as no sweet cake made with yeast is so good the second day as the first. If it is probable that the whole will not come into use on the day it is baked, mix only half the above quantity.

A long-time resident of this district, Mr. Law was especially popular with young people and will always be remembered for the help he was always ready to give when a skating rink was to be built or a baseball diamond prepared. Fine horses were always of interest to him and one of his last acts before entering the hospital for the last time was to walk to the barn yard to inspect the new foals.

We shall miss him.

Marlene Jubenvill

Dist. Home Economist

10426-81 Ave Edmonton Alberta

Rediscover your broad interests with an independent holiday in central Alberta, from July 15 to 18 at the Agricultural and Voc; tional College, Olds, Alberta.

Enjoy the new and beautiful residence with its handsome cafeteria, gayly decorated games, rooms, fine gymnasium and its beautiful lawns.

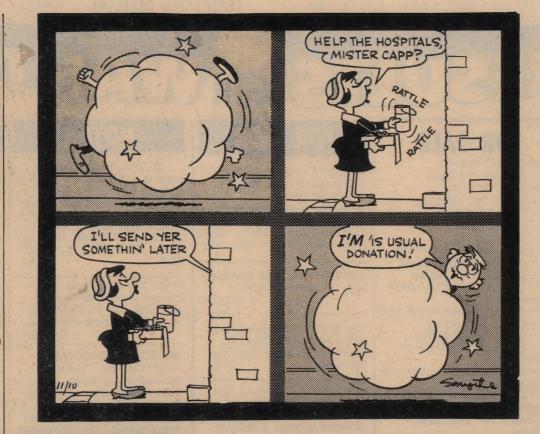

You will meet women from Alberta's towns and cities, as well as its rural areas, in a friendly and stimulating environment. The Home Economics Extension Service of the Alberta Department of Agriculture directs the program the theme of which will be "The Second Century Family."

From Monday to Thursday the comfortably new meeting rooms will be used for an ever changing and varied program.
Some of the topics I know will be: Housing of the Future"
(features and design and construction with safety aspect aspects); food demonstrations and a talk about nutritionally good food; Family Life; clothing, fabrics andhandicrafts of our future; how to 'tye dye'; Two Faces of Credit; status of women. And of course the Thursday evening banquet which has become a local tradition. Of course it's too early to give you here the completed program arrangements.

The cost is moderate. No charge is made for children under six years of age -- a moderate charge is made for children of six up to 21 years. No other fees are charged. Write to me or your District Home Economist for application forms and the program.

CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOC. Canadian doctors now accept the evidence that there is a direct relationship between cigarette-smoking and lung cancer, The Canadian Medical Association reports. The evidence is in two parts.

1. Coal tar derivatives can be used to cause cancer in experimental animals. This is a fact easily demonstrated and well-documented, and there are coal tar derivatives in cigarette smoke.

2. Statistically it has been shown that a higher percentage of lung cancer comes from those in the population who are heavy smokers than from those who are non-smokers.

Of perhaps even more importance than the relationship between cigarette smoking and lung cancer is the relationship between cigarett smoking and health in general. Several studies implicate, cigarette smoking in many other health situations. Some of these are coronary artery disease, arterial disease in general, leg pains, digestive disturbances, stomach ulcers, and respiratory problems such as emphysema and bronchitis.

The heavy smoker who, through injury or disease, requires an anaesthetic, is considered a greater surgical risk than the non-smoker. The smoker will probably be in more danger during his "sleep" and will have a less comfortable course after.

In summer, the C.M.A. reports that doctors today believe that cigarett smoking today constitutes a definite health

Provincial Parks Fees For Camping Increases

Effective July 1st of this year, overnight tent and trailer fees at 27 Provincial Parks will be increased to one dollar. This is an increase of 50¢ over present rates announced the Hon. H.A. Ruste, Minister of Alberta's Lands and Forests.

Area parks where the new fee structure will take effect in are: Pembina River; Pigeon Lake; and Wabamun Lake.

While fees have been set for Jarvis Bay, Moose Lake, Pigeon Lake; Sir Winston Churchhill and Tillebrook Parks, they are under development and not open to the public.

Where services are available there will be a 25¢ charge for each 24 hours or portion thereof for each service, water, sewer and electrical hook-up, requested by the camping permittee.

Starting also on the July 1st weekend, the Parks Service will offer a bus tour of Canada's unique Dinosaur Park. A 12-passenger bus equipped with a public address system will tour the park, visiting badlands, digs and other areas on a schedule set at the park.

The round-trip fare for persons 12 years of age and over is 50¢ and 25¢ for those under

The new fee structure brings Alberta's park fees on a par with other provinces and is expected to add approximately an additional $50,000 to the Provincial Treasury this year.

A survey conducted last year showed that 70 per cent of the requests received by the information units were listed in the directories. On an average day in Calgary, 23,711 calls for information are received; Red Deer handles 2,657; Peace River, 632; and Lethbridge, 2,947.

Information operators' records are marked to indicate the listings that have been changed or added after the subscribers directory was published. The main purpose of the information service is to assist customers with telephone numbers that have changed or are difficult to locate.

In addition to the term "Directory Assistance", the information operators will be using informative phrases suggesting that the customer become familiar with the directory and use it for its intended purpose.
